

Africa– Introducing Africa– Heinemann

Topic Words:

Continent

A big area of continuous land:

Africa, Europe, Australia, Asia, North America, South America, Antarctica.

Equator

An imaginary line that splits the Earth into the North and South. The closer you are, the warmer it is.

Ocean

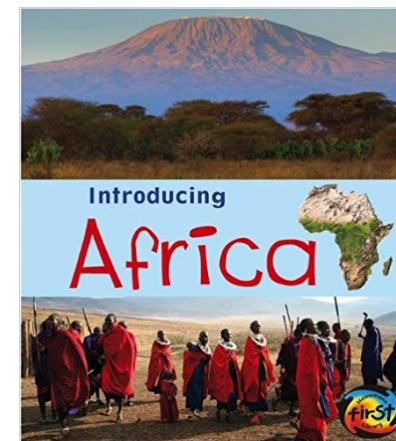

A huge body of salt water. It covers 71% of the world.

Physical Feature

Something that is put there because of nature– it is natural.

Human Feature

Something that has been put on the Earth by a human– it has been built.

Key Facts about Africa:

African is famous for its rock paintings that were made by Ancient Africans.

African masks are often made of wood and are used in special ceremonies .

South African has a population of 52 million people.

Kilimanjaro is the highest mountain in Africa.