

The Eiffel Tower is a human feature.

En France!

France is a country in western Europe. It borders Belgium, Luxembourg, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and Spain. The capital city of France is Paris. In the south of France are the Pyrenees which are a mountain range which form a natural border with Spain.

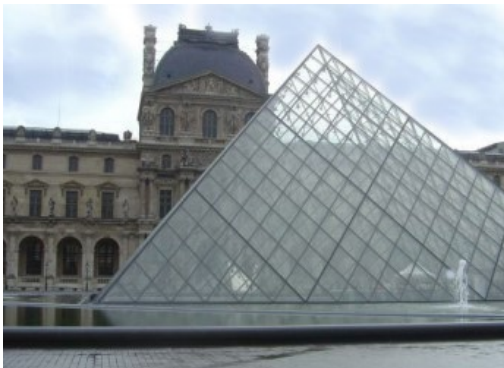

River Seine is a physical feature.

Mont St Michel is an island in Northern France that can be reached on foot during low tide.

The Louvre is a famous art gallery in France.

Geography Vocabulary

Location — a place or position

Map — a drawing of the Earth's surface that may show visible features such as rivers, forests, buildings and roads

Human feature — something that is built by humans such as a road or building

Physical feature — a natural part of the Earth such as a river, forest or mountain

Land use — how land is used

Atlas — A collection of maps usually in book form

Tropic of Cancer — line north of the equator

Tropic of Capricorn — line south of the equator

Equator — an imaginary line that circles the earth which divides the globe into two hemispheres

Hemisphere — half of the globe